NEW ORIEANS, June 29.—COTTON—In the spot cotton market there was little doing, offerings being limited and few buyers moving about; Futures were unsettled at the opening and remained so throughout the day. The decline was brought about by a variety of causes. Soon after the opening liquidation commenced and added to this a favriled on for the market than any thing from the country. Local operators did very little selling. Some weak longs unloaded, as is the selling. Some weak longs unloaded, as is usual in every slump. After the opening there was a further decline followed by a reaction. The market the neased off gradualls, closing at about the lowest figures of the day. Streets Again Falls of a Quorum

Present.

The Committee on Streets again failed of a quorum yesterday afternoon, the body having been called to consider the proposition to raise the grade of the streets in Rockeits. It is understood that the body favors the plan, which has been proposed by City Engineer Cutshaw and it will probably be adopted at a called meeting this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Committee on Printing and Claims held a routine session last night and that on Police met and audited the pay roll for the month.

Mr. W. M. Parrish, the well-known wholesale merchant, asked that the police force be increased and it wis referred to a sub-committee composed of Massry. Shea, Sheppard and Stein. Present.

HAS BEEN CALLED TO N. Y. CHURCH

Son of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of this City, Wanted in Rochester.

The Rev. James Taylor Dickinson, D. D., pastor of the North Orange Baptist Church, of New Jersey, has just been called to the First Baptist Church of Rochester, N. Y. He will probably ac-and is acceedingly well known here. He is a son of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of this city. Speaking of the call, the Orange Chronicle of recent date says in part:

"Dr. Dickinson came to Orange a little Chronicle of recent date says in part:

"Dr. Dickinson came to Orange a little over seventeen years ago, directly after graduating from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville. The North Orange Baptist Church has been his only pastorate. He was born in Richmond, Va., in 1811, and is a son of the Rov, Dr. A. E. Dickinson, one of the best known clergymen in the South, and editor of the Religious Heraid. On his mother's side for seven generations there has been a direct line of clergymen. His great-grandfather was the Rev. Elisha Williams, of Massachusetts, who was closely identified with George Washington during the Revolution, and later was a famous pastor in Massachusetts. Dr. Dickinson was graduated from Richmond College, and took a post-graduate course at the University of Virginia after he had completed his studies at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville.

"It was while he was taking his post-graduate course that he preached in the North Orange Baptist Church on the first two Sundays of January, 1886. He conducted also the services of the week of prayer and soon thereafter was extended a unanimous call to become pastor of the church, which had been without a minister for two and a half years. He began his pastorate on March 1, 1888.

(From the Onaga, Kans., Herald.)

Chamberlain's Remedies are so entirely good, so reliable and prompt in their effect, so absolutely true to their advertised merits, that we feel we know we are not helping to advertise fake remedies in publishing matter sent us by their manufacturers. For many years we have used these remedies in our household, and would as soon think of keeping house without a stove or fuel as to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the winter and Chamberlain's Coilc, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the summer. Not that we are subject to allments these remedies cure, but we keep them handy on the principle that a Texan carries a gun—he may need it some day mighty bad. For sale by all druggists.

EX-OUTLAWS TO BE SEEN HERE TO-DAY

Cole Younger and Frank James at Main and Vine Streets.

The Younger and James Wild West Shows, headed by the noted ex-oullaws, Cole Younger and Frank James, will give two performances in Richmond to-day, at Main and Vine Streets. The first begins at 2 and the lattr at 8 P. M.

It was the intention of the Wild west Show to parade through the principal streets prior to the performance, but in the disturbed state of affairs incident to the strike the necessary permission could not be secured.

Cole Younger and Frank James are two men whose names are two links in the history of the late war. The careers of these men have been marked by a greater number of thrilling adventures than the histories of any other two livhad felt their enmity while the war raged.

Younger is fifty-eight years old. He looks like a well-groomed, modestly attired lawyer or doctor. While in prison at Stillwater he was the prison preacher and each Sunday he delivered carefully prepared, excellent sermons of a character calculated to convince his hearers that when they regained freedom they should lead moral lives.
Cole Younger declares that not one-fiftieth of the raids charged against the James and Younger boys were committed by them. He refuses to disclose who shot Cashier Hayward at Northfield, Minn. but declares that Frank James was not in the party that raided the bank. The famous ex-bandit is a son of a former Missouri judge, and his mother was the daughter of a judge. He was a cousin of the famous Confederate general. Robert E. Lee, and his family is related to those of Governors, legislators and other prominent persons in Tennessee. Missouri and Kentucky.

Cole Younger has been shot thirty times, and at least ten builets are now in his body.

Frank James oppears in the arena at each exhibition. Cole Younger has an equally prominent part in the exhibitions.

ATTORNEY SENTENCED

NEW YORK, June 29.—Robert Ammon, attorney for William F. Miller, of the Franklin syndicate, was to-day sentenced to an indeterminate term in State's prison of not less than four nor more than four and a half years. Ammon was convicted of having received stolen money from Miller. The maximum penalty for this offense is five years.

the strike, however, Managers Wells and McKee have decided to play the attractions booked for the summer months at the Bijou, and the departure will be inaugurated with Bijou attractions at Casino prices next week.

To help the situation fifty-six electric fans, with great exhaust fans, have been placed in the Broad Street theatre, and while the hot air is pumped out ica-cold air will be fanned all through the theatre by electric fans blowing over huge blocks of ice.

Arrangements have been made for the introduction of a great line of attractions, the strongest yet offered here in the summer, and the innovation promises to be entirely successful.

Managers Wells and McKee decided that some place of amusement should be open in the city, and as there is a large staff of employes at the Bijou that would be thrown out of work if the house was closed, the two managers buried their personnal inclinations and decided to keep thely down-town theatre open until it is absolutely necessary to close the house for the alterations and repairs that have been planned for next season.

2...... The Dalton Stock Company made a better impression at the Academy last night than they did in the production of "East Lynne." In "Caste," the piece presented as the opening bill of this week, and which will be continued until Thursday, the company is not taxed to such a great extent, and the result is that the work of each member is more satisfactory. "Caste" is a play that has been done so often that its meirits are familiar to the average theatre-koer. It has not however, been presented here for several years, when it was produced under the title of "Eccles" Girls.

George Parsons and Isabelle Urquhart scored heavily at the Bijou in "A Turkish Texan." The house was very nearly up to the Monday night standard in attendance, and the audience was immensely pleased with the bright comedy. Nothing was lacking to make the production a perfect one. The company was capable, and the plece, was splendaly stated.

Solith, did a delightful bit of canedy Switch, His methods, like those of Willie Collier, one of the authors of the plee, are clear cut, and he has a snap and "go" in everything he does, Isabelle Urquhart was cast as Lady Beckett, glying to the preduction her gracious presence, and wearing some beautiful gowns.
